CHAPTER III

GRAM PANCHAYATS

13. (1) There shall be constituted a Gram Panchayat for every Gram Sabha.

(2) The Gram Panchayat constituted under sub-section (1) shall be notified in the Official Gazette and shall be deemed to have been constituted from the date of its first meeting.

(3) Every person shall be entitled to be included in the list of electors of Gram Panchayat if he is not less than eighteen years of age on the date of its publication under sub-section (1) and is ordinarily resident within the area of the Gram Panchayat:

Provided that no person shall be entitled to be included in the list of the electors of any Gram Panchayat for more than one Gram Panchayat and no person shall be entitled to be included in the electoral roll of any Gram Panchayat for more than once:

Provided further that if the applicant is included in the electoral roll of any other Gram Panchayat, the officer who includes his name shall inform the officer publishing the electoral roll of that other Gram Panchayat and that the other officer shall, on receipt of the information, strike off the applicant's name from that list.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression "ordinarily resident" shall have the same meaning as has been given in section 20 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950.

(4) The name of any person included in the list of electors who becomes disqualified at any time after his name was entered in the list, shall forthwith be struck-off from the list in which it is included:

Provided that the name of any person struck-off from the electoral roll by reason of disqualification under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 3 shall forthwith be re-instated if such person ceases to become disqualified.

(5) An appeal shall be made within such time and in such manner and to such authority as may be prescribed against any order passed under sub-sections (2) and (4).

14. Every Gram Panchayat shall, by the name notified in the Official Gazette under section 13, be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property and to enter into contracts, and shall, by the said name sue and be sued.

15. The electoral roll of the Manipur Assembly prepared under the provision of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 and as in force on such date as the State Government may, by general or special order, notify in this behalf for such part of the constituency of the Assembly as is included in the Gram Sabha, shall be the list of electors for such Gram Panchayat.

Constitution of Gram Panchayat.

Incorporation of Gram Panchayat.

Electoral roll of Gram Panchayat.

Publication of Electoral roll of Gram Panchayat.

16. (1) The list of electors referred to in section 15 shall be published in such manner and by such authority as may be prescribed.

(2) Any person whose name is not included in the list of electors published under sub-section (1) may apply within ten days from its publication to the officer publishing the same for inclusion of his name therein and officer concerned shall, if he is satisfied that the applicant fulfils the condition mentioned in sub-section (3) and is not disqualified from being included in the list of electors under section 15 after making such inquiry as may be prescribed, direct his name to be included in the list of electors.

Composition of Gram Panchayat.

17. A Gram Panchayat shall consist of the Pradhan and such number of directly elected members as may be notified from time to time by the State Government and one member for every 350 population or part thereof of the Panchayat area shall be elected as a member of such Panchayat.

Division of Gram Panchayat into territorial constituencies.

18. (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall, for the conduct of the election,—

(i) divide the area of the Gram Sabha into territorial constituencies in such manner that the ratio between the population of each constituency and the number of seats allotted to it shall, as far as practicable, be the same throughout the Gram Sabha area;

(ii) determine the number of seats allotted to each constituency.

(2) One member from each territorial constituency shall be elected by direct election to the Gram Panchayat.

Reservation of seats.

19. (1) Seats shall be reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in every Gram Panchayat and the number of seats so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that Panchayat as the population of Scheduled Castes or of the Scheduled Tribes in that Panchayat area bears to the total population of that area and such seats shall be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in such Gram Panchayat, in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Not less than one-third of the total number of seats reserved under sub-section (1) shall be reserved for women belonging to Scheduled Castes, or as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes.

(3) Not less than one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in every Gram Panchayat shall be reserved for women and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in a Gram Panchayat in such manner as may be prescribed.

Term of the Gram Panchayats.

20. (1) Every Gram Panchayat, shall continue for a term of five years from the date appointed for its first meeting and no longer:

Provided that a Gram Panchayat which is functioning immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue till the expiration of its duration.

(2) The election to constitute a Gram Panchayat shall be completed—

(a) before the expiration of its duration specified in sub-section (1); and

(b) in case of dissolution, before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of dissolution.

Provided that where the remainder of the period for which the dissolved Gram Panchayat would have continued is less than six months, it shall not be necessary to hold any election under this clause for constituting the Gram Panchayat for such period.

(3) A Gram Panchayat constituted upon the dissolution of a Gram Panchayat before the expiration of its duration, shall continue only for the remainder of the period for which the dissolved Gram Panchayat would have continued under sub-section (1) had it not been so dissolved.

21. The Pradhan and members of the Gram Panchayat shall be elected by direct election under secret ballot by the members of the Gram Sabha from amongst themselves in such manner as may be prescribed.

22. (1) (a) If the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that a Gram Panchayat for a village or group of villages immediately after the establishment of such Gram Panchayat cannot be constituted by reason of—

(i) any difficulty in holding an election of the members of the Gram Panchayat; or

(ii) failure to elect such members at two successive elections held under section 17; or

(iii) any other sufficient reason whatsoever.

(b) If at any general election to a Gram Panchayat, no member is elected or less than two-third of the total number of members are elected; the Deputy Commissioner shall, by notification either,

(i) appoint an Administrative Committee consisting of persons qualified to be elected, the number of such persons being equal to the number of members determined under section 17; or

(ii) appoint an Administrator.

(2) The members of the Administrative Committee or the Administrator shall hold office for such period not exceeding six months as the Deputy Commissioner may specify in the notification under sub-section (1).

(3) On the appointment of an Administrative Committee or an Administrator under sub-section (1), the persons, if any, chosen as members of the office of Pradhan

member.

23. (1) In the event of occurrence of any vacancy by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise in the office of Pradhan or of a member of a Gram Panchayat, the vacancy shall be filled by election in the manner prescribed.

(2) Every Pradhan and every Member elected to fill a casual vacancy, shall hold office for the remaining term of office of the person in whose place he is so elected.

Provided that no election for filling the casual vacancy shall be held if the vacancy is for a period of less than six months.

24. (1) Every Gram Panchayat shall, as soon as may be, elect one of its members to be Up-Pradhan.

(2) In the event of occurrence of any vacancy by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise in the office of Up-Pradhan, the Gram Panchayat shall elect another member to be the Up-Pradhan:

Provided that no election shall be held if the vacancy is for a period of less than six months.

25. Subject to the general or special order of the Government, the Deputy Commissioner shall reserve—

(i) such number of offices of Pradhan and Up-Pradhan of Gram Panchayat in the district for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes as nearly as may be, in the same proportion as the total number of offices in the district bears to the population of the Scheduled Castes or of the Scheduled Tribes in the district bears to the total population of that district;

(ii) not less than one-third of the total number of offices of Pradhan and Up-Pradhan, as the case may be, of the Gram Panchayat in the district shall be reserved for women:

Provided that the offices reserved under this section shall be allotted by rotation to different Gram Panchayats in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Pradhan and Up-Pradhan shall be entitled to such honoraria and other allowances, as may be prescribed.

(3) Every member of the Gram Panchayat shall be entitled to receive such honoraria and allowances as may be fixed by the Government from time to time.

28. (1) The Pradhan shall—

(a) be responsible for convening the meeting of Gram Sabha and preside over its meeting;

(b) be responsible for convening the meeting of Gram Panchayat and shall preside over its meetings;

(c) be responsible for the maintenance of the records of the Gram Panchayat;

(d) have the general responsibility for the financial and executive administration of the Gram Panchayat;

(e) exercise administrative supervision and control over the work of the staff of the Gram Panchayat and the officers and employees whose services may be placed at the disposal of the Gram Panchayat by any other authority;

(f) for the transaction of business connected with this Act or for the purpose of making any order authorised thereby, exercise such powers, perform such functions and discharge such duties as may be exercised, performed or discharged by the Gram Panchayat under this Act or the rules made thereunder:

Provided that the Pradhan shall not exercise such powers, perform such functions or discharge such duties as may be required by the rules made under this Act to be exercised, performed or discharged by the Gram Panchayat at a meeting; and

(g) exercise such other powers, perform such other functions and discharge such other duties as the Gram Panchayat may, by general or special resolution direct or as the Government may by rules made in this behalf, prescribe.

(2) The Up-Pradhan shall—

(a) exercise such of the powers, perform such of the functions and discharge such of the duties of Pradhan as the Pradhan may from time to time, subject to rules made in this behalf by the Government, delegate to him by order in writing:

Provided that the Pradhan may at any time withdraw all or any of the powers, functions and duties so delegated to the Up-Pradhan;

(b) during the absence of the Pradhan, exercise all the powers, perform all the functions and discharge all the duties of the Pradhan;

(c) exercise such other powers, perform such other functions and discharge such other duties as the Gram Panchayat may, by general or special resolution, direct or as the Government may, by rules made in this behalf, prescribe.

Resignation of Pradhan and Up-Pradhan.

29. (1) The Pradhan and the Up-Pradhan, as the case may be, may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the prescribed authority.

(2) Every resignation under sub-section (1) shall take effect on the expiry of fifteen days from the date of its receipt by the prescribed authority, unless within this period of fifteen days he withdraws such resignation by writing under his hand addressed to the prescribed authority.

(3) Every Up-Pradhan shall vacate the office if he ceases to be a member of a Gram Panchayat.

No confidence motion against the Pradhan and Up-Pradhan.

30. (1) Every Pradhan and every Up-Pradhan shall be deemed to have vacated his office forthwith if a resolution expressing want of confidence in him is passed by a majority of not less than two-third of the members of the Gram Panchayat present and voting, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose. The requisition for such a special meeting shall be signed by not less than half of the total number of members of the Gram Panchayat and shall be delivered to the prescribed authority. The prescribed authority shall within seven days from the date of the receipt of the requisition, convene a special meeting of the Gram Panchayat. The meeting shall be held on a day not later than fifteen days from the date of issue of the notice of the meeting. The meeting shall be presided over by the prescribed authority. In the initial two years of their term as Pradhan and Up-Pradhan of a Gram Panchayat on such motion of no confidence shall be moved against them. If the motion of no confidence is once rejected, no fresh motion of no confidence shall be brought before the Gram Panchayat within a period of one year from the date of such rejection of the motion.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions under this Act, a Pradhan and Up-Pradhan may be removed from office by the Government for misconduct in the discharge of his duties or neglect or, incapacity to perform his duties or for being persistently remiss in the discharge thereof, or guilty of any disgraceful conduct:

Provided that, no such Pradhan, or Up-Pradhan be removed from office unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity to defend himself.

(3) The Pradhan or Up-Pradhan removed under sub-section (2) shall not be eligible for re-election as Pradhan or Up-Pradhan during the remaining term of office.

(4) A Pradhan or Up-Pradhan removed from his office under sub-section (2) shall cease to be a member of the Gram Panchayat.

31. A member of a Gram Panchayat may resign his membership in writing under his hand addressed to the Pradhan of the Gram Panchayat and his seat shall become vacant on the expiry of fifteen clear days from the date of such resignation unless within the said period of fifteen days, he withdraws such resignation by writing under his hand addressed to the Pradhan.

Resignation of members.

32. (1) A Gram Panchayat shall meet for the transaction of business at least once in two months at the office of the Gram Panchayat and at such time as the Pradhan may determine.

Meeting of Gram Panchayat.

(2) The Pradhan may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of not less than one-third of the total number of members and on a date within fifteen days from the receipt of such request, call a special meeting.

(3) Seven clear days' notice of an ordinary meeting and three clear days' notice of a special meeting specifying the place, date and time of such meeting and the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given by the Secretary to the members and such officers as the Government may prescribe, and affixed on the notice board of the Gram Panchayat.

(4) The officers to whom notice is given under sub-section (3) and other Government officers having jurisdiction over the Gram Panchayat area or any part thereof shall be entitled to attend every meeting of Gram Panchayat and take part in the proceedings but shall not be entitled to vote.

(5) If the Pradhan fails to call a special meeting as provided in sub-section (2), the Up-Pradhan or, in his absence, one-third of the total number of members may call such a meeting for a day not more than fifteen days thereafter and require the Secretary to give notice to the members and to take such action as may be necessary to convene the meeting.

33. (1) Minutes shall be kept of the names of the members and of the officers, if any, present, and of the proceedings at each meeting of the Gram Panchayat and if any member present at the meeting so desires, of the names of the member voting respectively for or against any resolution, in a book to be provided for the purpose and after they are read over and agreed to, shall be signed by the Pradhan and Up-Pradhan or person presiding at such meeting, and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any member of the Gram Panchayat. Any person may inspect the copy of minutes of the meeting. The minutes books shall always be kept in the office of the Gram Panchayat and shall be in the custody of the Secretary of the Gram Panchayat.

Minutes.

(2) A copy of every resolution passed by the Gram Panchayat shall within ten days from the date of meeting, be forwarded by the Secretary to the Chief Executive Officer.

34. (1) The quorum for a meeting of the Gram Panchayat shall be one-half of the total number of members. If, at the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the presiding authority shall wait for thirty minutes, and if within such period there is no quorum, the presiding authority shall adjourn the meeting to such time on the following day or such future day as he may fix. He shall, similarly, after waiting for thirty minutes adjourn the meeting if, at any time, after it has begun, attention is drawn to the want of a quorum. A notice of the meeting so fixed shall be pasted in the office of the Gram Panchayat. The business which could not be considered at the meeting so postponed for want of quorum, shall be brought before and disposed of at the meeting so fixed or at any subsequent adjourned meeting at which there is a quorum.

(2) Save as otherwise provided by or under this Act, at every meeting of Gram Panchayat, the Pradhan or in his absence the Up-Pradhan shall preside, and in the absence of both, the members present shall elect one from amongst themselves to preside for the occasion.

(3) All questions shall, unless otherwise specifically provided, be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting. The Pradhan or Up-Pradhan or person presiding, as the case may be, unless he refrains from voting shall give his vote before declaring the number of votes for and against a question and in the case of equality of votes, he may give his casting vote.

(4) No member of a Gram Panchayat shall vote on, or take part in the discussion of, any question coming up for consideration at a meeting of a Gram Panchayat, if the question is one in which, apart from its general application to the public, he has any pecuniary interest, and if the person presiding has such an interest, he shall not preside over the meeting when such question comes up for consideration.

(5) If the person presiding is believed by any member present at the meeting to have any such pecuniary interest in any matter under discussion, and if a motion to that effect be carried he shall not preside at the meeting during such discussion or vote on or take part in it. Any member of the Gram Panchayat may be chosen to preside at the meeting during the continuance of such discussion.

(b) require a Gram Panchayat, to take into consideration any objection which appears to him to exist, to the doing of anything which is about to be done or is being done by such Gram Panchayat or any information which appears to him to necessitate the doing of anything by such Gram Panchayat or within such period as he may fix;

(c) order a duty to be performed within a specified period if a Gram Panchayat has made default in the performance of any duty and if such duty is not performed within the specified period, to appoint a person to perform such duty and direct that the expenses thereof shall be paid by the defaulting Gram Panchayat within such period as he may fix;

(d) direct a Gram Panchayat to levy any tax if it has failed to do so in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(e) call for meetings of the Gram Panchayat, or any of its committees if no meeting of the Gram Panchayat or its committees has been held in accordance with the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder.

(2) The Gram Panchayat may appeal to the Commissioner, against any order made under clause (c) of sub-section (1) by the Chief Executive Officer within thirty days from the date of such order.

(3) The Commissioner may in respect of Zilla Parishad exercise the following Powers, namely:—

(a) call for proceedings of any Zilla Parishad or any extract of any book or document in the possession of or under the control of the Zilla Parishad or any return or statement of account or report;

(b) require a Zilla Parishad, to take into consideration any objection which appears to him to exist to the doing of anything which is about to be done or is being done by such Zilla Parishad or any information which appears to him to necessitate the doing of anything by such Zilla Parishad or within such period as he may fix;

(c) order a duty to be performed within a specified period if a Zilla Parishad has made default in the performance of any duty and if such duty is not performed within the specified period, to appoint a person to perform such duty and direct that the expenses thereof shall be paid by the defaulting Zilla Parishad within such period as he may fix;

(d) call for meetings of the Zilla Parishad or any of its committees if no meeting of the Zilla Parishad or its committees has been held in accordance with the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder.

(4) The Zilla Parishad may appeal to the Government, against any order made under clause (c) of sub-section (3) by the Commissioner, within thirty days from the date of such order.

88. When the Government in case of a Zilla Parishad and the Chief Executive Officer in case of a Gram Panchayat is informed on complaint made or otherwise, that any Zilla Parishad or Gram Panchayat has made default in performing any duty imposed on it, by or under this Act, or by or under any law for the time being in force and if the Government or Chief Executive Officer, as the case may be, is satisfied after due enquiry that any Zilla Parishad or Gram Panchayat, has failed in the performance of such duty, the Government or the Chief Executive Officer, as the case may be, may fix a period for the performance of that duty:

Provided that no such period shall be fixed unless the Zilla Parishad or Gram Panchayat concerned has been given an opportunity to show cause why such an order shall not be made.

Power of Government and Chief Executive Officer to provide for performance of duties in default of Gram Panchayat or Zilla Parishad.

89. (1) If in the opinion of the Zilla Parishad the execution of any order or resolution of a Gram Panchayat or any order of any authority or Officer of a Gram Panchayat or the doing anything which is about to be done, or is being done, by or on behalf of a Gram Panchayat is unjust, unlawful, improper or is causing or is likely to cause injury or annoyance to the public or to lead to a breach of the peace, it may by order suspend the execution of or prohibit the doing thereof.

(2) When the Zilla Parishad makes an order under sub-section (1) it shall forthwith forward to the Government and to the Gram Panchayat affected thereby a copy of the order with a statement of the reasons for making it and it shall be in the discretion of the Government to confirm or rescind the order or to direct that it shall continue to be in force with or without modification permanently or for such period as it thinks fit:

Provided that no order of the Zilla Parishad made under this section shall be confirmed, revised or modified by the Government without giving the Gram Panchayat reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the said order.

90. (1) If on the receipt of a report from the Chief Executive Officer in this behalf or otherwise the Government is of the opinion that execution of any order or resolution of Zilla Parishad or the doing of anything which is about to be done or is being done by on behalf of a Zilla Parishad is unjust, unlawful, or improper or is causing or is likely to cause injury or annoyance to the public or to lead to a breach of the peace, it may, by an order suspend the execution or prohibit the doing thereof.

(2) When the Government makes an order under sub-section (1) it shall forthwith forward to the Zilla Parishad affected thereby a copy of the order with a statement of reasons for making it and the Government may confirm or rescind the order or direct that it shall continue to be in force with or without modification permanently or for such period as it thinks fit:

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be made by the Government without giving the Zilla Parishad concerned a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the said order.

Zilla Parishad's power of suspending the executions of order etc. of Gram Panchayat.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 27(2), 45(1), 55 and 75 of the Bill relate to the expenses in respect to office bearer and staff of the Gram Panchayats and Zilla Parishads. However, clause 39(2) (a) and clause 69(2) of the Bill provides that in case of Gram Panchayat and Zilla Parishad respectively the total expenditure on establishment shall not exceed one-third of the total expenditure. Hence at this stage, it is not possible to estimate the expenditure in respect of Gram Panchayats and Zilla Parishads.

Article 243K of the Constitution of India inserted by the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992, provides for a State Election Commission for each state consisting of an Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor for the purpose of conducting election of the Councillors of Municipalities and members of the Panchayats. As per the constitutional provision it is necessary to make available to the Election Commission such staff as may be required by it for discharging its functions. Clause 98 of the Bill provides for appointment of an Election Commissioner and the staff. The provision if enacted and brought into operation may involve an estimated expenditure of about rupees twelve lakhs eighty-four thousand only from the Consolidated Fund of the State, out of which rupees six lakhs sixty thousand per annum would be recurring nature and rupees six lakhs twenty-four thousand will be of non-recurring nature.

Article 243-I of the Constitution of India inserted by the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992, provides for constitution of a Finance Commission by the State Government for the purpose of reviewing the financial position of the Municipalities and the Panchayats and make recommendations etc.

Clause 97 of the Bill provides for the functions of the Finance Commission. Some staffs are required to be appointed in the commission to enable it to carry out its functions.

This provision if enacted and brought into operation would involve an expenditure of about rupees twenty lakhs eighty-four thousand only from the Consolidated Fund of the State, out of which rupees six lakhs sixty thousand only per annum would be of recurring nature and rupees six lakhs twenty-four thousand only would be of non-recurring nature.

The aforesaid expenditure would be for all the Municipalities and the Panchayats in the State of Manipur.

Note: This revised Financial Memorandum replaces the Financial Memorandum on page 56 of the Manipur Panchayati Raj Bill, 1994.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

The power to make rules to carry out the provisions of the Bill are scattered in several provisions of the Bill. This is necessary in view of the subject matter of the Bill. Some of the more important provisions of the Bill empowering to make rules are clauses 6, 16, 19, 21, 23, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 32, 38, 39, 40, 43, 44, 45, 50, 51, 52, 54, 55, 56, 57, 66, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 79, 85, 97, 98, 101, and 103. There are also certain provisions empowering the Government to issue notifications. Some of the more important of these provisions are sub-clause (3) of clause 1, clauses 2, 15, 17, 22, 25, 36, 40, 46, 48, 61, 63, 64, 70, 82, 83, 92 and 94.

The matters in respect of which the rules may be made or the notifications may be issued under the aforementioned provisions relate to administrative detail and procedure. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of normal character.

Clause 109 of the Bill empowers the Government to remove by order any difficulty which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of this legislation. This is by way of abundant caution and for covering difficulties which it is not practicable to visualise in view of the voluminous and complicated nature of the subject matter of the Bill.

C. K. JAIN,
Secretary-General.
